

I am writing to support XM radio's ability to provide local programming. The provision of these services by XM does not impact my listening behavior regarding local radio stations. I find the local stations to be saturated with advertising and chatter and do not listen to them at all.